To the Chief executive

I Skye [redacted] mother of Indie-Rose [redacted] from address [redacted]

am writing to you today to ask for 60 day provisional registration for section 207 of the act for my child.

My Child does not attend a school - She has been home-schooled with the NSW education department for the last 3 years - this has now expired and we are currently in the middle of moving to [redacted] please note: It has come to my attention that [redacted] is ran by the Qld education system - hence my application for provisional registration today - I will be apply for full Qld homeschool registration by the end of the 60^{day} provisional registration expires - I just need more time to plan and settle into our new place. Thankyou. Yours Sincerely please contact me on [redacted] if you require further information.
